2020 Dennis Dean UG Research Spring Conference

Sample Registration Form

Deadline: April 8 at noon

Only ONE application should be submitted per presentation. If you are part of a group or team, please include information for all contributors on this form.

Virginia Tech's Office of Undergraduate Research is hosting the Dennis Dean Undergraduate Research and Creative Scholarship Conference on April 24, 2020. This day-long celebration is aimed at offering undergraduates the opportunity to gain experience communicating their research or creative scholarship while engaging faculty and other students. Registration for the conference is free.

Acceptance of your project to the conference is contingent upon your faculty mentor's endorsement. Your faculty mentor must submit this endorsement using the online form found here:

https://tinyurl.com/2020conferenceendorsement

Please forward this link to your faculty mentor. Your application will not be considered without it. The deadline for submission of faculty endorsement is 5pm on April 10, 2020.

Students will be notified no later than April 17 about their presentation time slot. Detailed information about the conference will be posted on OUR website, including schedules and specific presentation instructions:

www.research.undergraduate.vt.edu.

This conference is a collaborative effort made possible with support from the Fralin Life Science Institute. If you have questions, please contact Keri Swaby (email: kswaby@vt.edu).
