

Ambassador Application 2019-20
Example Application

Last name

First name

VT E-mail address (this will be our main mode of communicating with you)

Primary major

Secondary major (if applicable)

Minors you are pursuing

Expected graduation semester, year

Total number of semesters conducting research (on one or more projects; please count summer research as one semester, even if you were off campus).

In which format(s) did you conduct undergraduate research? Select all that apply.

A vertical axis with four tick marks labeled 'Voluntary', 'For credit', 'For pay', and 'Other'. The axis is a simple line with short horizontal bars at each tick mark. The labels are positioned to the left of the axis.

Are/Were you part of a formal research program, such as Scieneering, SURF, IMSD, MAOP, NSF REU, etc.? Please list all programs you are/were affiliated with. For REU programs, please list REU title.

Please briefly describe your research experience(s), including your role(s) on the project(s).

In your own words, what is "undergraduate research"?

What do you think is the most important thing an undergraduate student should know before starting research?

What do you think is the biggest benefit of doing undergraduate research?

What do you think is the biggest difficulty associated with undergraduate research?

Have you ever mentored other students?

Please describe your experience and what you learned from the experience.

Please briefly describe any presentations you have given to a group of people. This can include presentations in class, to a lab group, at a conference, at a meeting, or the like.

Are you comfortable giving oral presentations to an audience of between 5 and 200 people? This is a required function of the position.

Are you able to commit between 2 and 5 hours per week to the OUR for this position?

Full name of reference

Institution/Company

E-mail address of reference

Capacity in which they know you (ex. research advisor, instructor, TA, etc.)

By typing your name below you indicate that the information provided on this form is accurate, to the best of your knowledge, and certify your application for a position of OUR ambassador.